

Badminton Coaching Pathway in Australia

Qualification

Who is it for?

Steps to Complete

BWF L3

Focused on elite coaching for competition on the world stage

Organised by BA in conjunction with BWF. Promoted through communications channels when open for registrations.

BWF L2

Builds on knowledge from BWF L1 to a higher technical, tactical and physical standard

BWF L1

Covers the technical, tactical and physical aspects of coaching for competitive play

Organised by S/Ts or BA. Promoted through communications channels when open for registrations

BA Foundation

Minimum requirement for club coaches and coaching at National events. Introduction to the fundamental basics for all ages.

1. Complete online pre-requisite
2. Book onto a face to face with S/T directly or complete EOI

SHUTTLE TIME

For teachers, aspiring junior coaches and parent volunteers, covers the basics of badminton for children 5-15. Schools focused but applicable to community programs.

1. Complete online pre-requisite
2. Book onto a face to face with S/T directly who will advise when a course has been scheduled
3. Access the delivery resources HERE

SHUTTLE SMASH

Learn about Shuttle Smash, the basics of badminton and effective coaching techniques. All you'll need is passion and a love for sport to get started!

1. Complete online leadership course HERE.
2. Register with a provider
3. Order equipment and access lessons plans to get started